

In 2008, Four UC Topnotchers in Environmental & Sanitary Engineering

A new topnotcher from the Cordillera has emerged to join the string of ever-increasing number of Cordillera topnotchers. This is according to results released on September 19, 2008 by the Professional Regulations Commission, relative to the licensure exams for Environmental & Sanitary Engineers. Shining through in national venues, the #1 spot was snagged again by an engineering graduate of a Cordillera university. With a rating of 82.11%, the University of the Cordillera's Glenda Ramilo Cabauatan topped the licensure exams for Environmental & Sanitary Engineers, conducted in September 16 to 18, 2008.

For the record, UC has attained the rare feat of having two #1 state licensure examinees in one year. The licensure exams for Environmental & Sanitary Engineering is conducted two times in one year. For 2008, the exams were conducted in February 2008 & in September 2008.

Furthermore, UC garnered two other top ten spots, for a total of four topnotchers in 2008. UC's Simbert S. Ao-wat snagged 7th place; while UC's Mark Alfred F. Mungcal was 9th place.

To date, UC's Environmental & Sanitary Engineering has amassed a total of 15 topnotchers since it started fielding examinees in E. & S. E. exams, proving that UC's latest feat is no fluke.

• 11 UC Topnotchers in 2008 •

At a fraction of the resources of the top universities of the Philippines, --- UC experienced a surge of eleven topnotchers in the 2008 licensure exams. More than ever, topnotchers from the Cordillera have consistently and continuously shined through in national venues.

• 165 UC Topnotchers Overall •

To date, UC has amassed a grand total of 165 topnotchers, establishing the Cordillera as a bastion for world class professionals.
